2nd Annual Flyers Charities Celebrity Golf Invitational

Thursday, September 10, 2009

Comcast-Spectacor Foundation/Flyers Charities

The principal focus of the Foundation is to support non-profit organizations that provide educational and recreational resources to underserved youth and to causes that engage in medical research and other important healthcare initiatives.

As producers of this popular annual event that helps kick off the season in a fun and informal way, the Comcast-Spectacor Foundation offers our patrons and sponsors a memorable day of mingling and golfing with your favorite Philadelphia Flyers celebrities, while supporting many worthwhile causes in the Greater Philadelphia Region. Meet Philadelphia Flyers team members off the ice in this unique VIP event! Participants will be granted exclusive opportunities to also bid on one-of-a kind trips and auction items, with all proceeds going to charity.

Lisa and Scott Hartnell

Scott Hartnell, Host

19 Going into his 3rd season with the Philadelphia Flyers and 9th season in the NHL, Hartnell has become a fan-favorite with his grit and determination on the ice and his personality and sense of humor off the ice. With his signature hair that was the focus of Scott Hartnell Wig Night at the Flyers, Hartnell and his wife, Lisa are looking forward to a fun-filled day of golf for a great cause. Lisa, a licensed PGA teaching professional, is currently a golf instructor at "The Pines at Grand View Lodge" in Brainerd, MN. Don't miss the opportunity to challenge Lisa at our tournament in a fun par 3 game! Scott and Lisa Hartnell are active in the Philadelphia community with various charitable initiatives including the Flyers Wives Carnival and are very excited to host this year's tournament.
